

Etta's Photo Auction

Hi

My name is Dawn Emmons. I am a professional photographer and model working out of my studio near Dayton downtown. I am going to be hosting a Photo Auction to benefit the Deaf Community Resource Center at my studio, 1111 E Second St, 300 building, 1305 studio, Dayton, Ohio 45405 on November 6, 2009 from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Currently DCRC is facing a crisis due to the economic downturn. The proceeds from the Photo Auction will help Deaf Community Resource Center to continue to provide the services and programs for the Deaf, Hard of Hearing and their families. The Deaf community has been dreaming for a long time about creating an organization that offers them the opportunity to socialize, learn, and develop skills and qualities that will benefit individuals, families and their community.

There are several ways you can help with the Photo Auction. If you have photographs or other art that you are willing to donate, the money generated from the sales will support DCRC and its programs and services. We will handle framing, mounting and displaying the work. Your donation is tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law, and you and your work will be promoted to the public who come to the Auction to view and buy. The other way to help is to volunteer for a committee to work on preparing for the show, managing the Auction itself, or helping with clean-up.

If you are interested in helping me help DCRC, please let me know. If the Deaf and the Art community pull together, I know we can put on a successful auction and benefit a worthwhile and much needed organization.
